

MUSEUM on Main Street

Water/Ways Graphic Identity and Press Images

 The logo for 'Water/Ways' features the word 'WATER' in blue and 'WAYS' in dark blue, separated by a vertical line. Below the text is a stylized wave graphic with blue and green colors.	Water/Ways graphic identity
 A photograph showing a large concrete pipe discharging water onto a sandy beach. The water is flowing over rocks and into the ocean. The background shows a rocky coastline with trees and a clear sky.	A pipe empties urban runoff on a California beach Monterey Bay National Marine Sanctuary, National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration
 A photograph of a crowded beach with many people, umbrellas, and palm trees under a clear blue sky.	Newport Beach, CA The Jon B. Lovelace Collection of California Photographs in Carol M. Highsmith's America Project, Library of Congress, Prints and Photographs Division.
 A painting of a steamboat on a river, surrounded by lush greenery and trees.	River Steamboat, FL, 1902 Library of Congress
 A photograph showing two people shaking hands across a river. One person is wearing a white shirt and the other is wearing a brown shirt. Other people are visible in the background.	Americans and Mexicans join hands across the Rio Grande, 2014 Lorne Matalon

	Water droplet and ripples Pakhnyushchy/Shutterstock.com
	Pond depleted due to drought, CA US Department of Agriculture by Cynthia Mendoza
	Colorado River, Blue Legacy International
	Fisherman, American Samoa National Park Service
	Water in its liquid, solid and vapor states, Yellowstone National Park, WY Neal Herbert
	Kayaker US Environmental Protection Agency photo by Eric Vance

